THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CON-VENTION.

A National Convention of the Republican party will meet at Chicago, Wednesday, the 24th of June next, for the nomination of candidates to be supported for President and Vice President at the next election.
Republicans, and all who will co-operate with them in supporting the nominee of the party, are invited to choose two delegates from each Congressional District, four at large from each State, two from each Territory, and two from the District of Columbia, to represent them in the Convention.

the Republican party of Wisconsin, and of all who will co-operate with them in supporting the

at the Capitol in Madison, at twelve o'clock M., on Wednesday, May 5th, 1880, for the purpose of placing in nomination an electoral ticket of ten electors to be supported by the party at the next Presidential election, and also to select twenty delegates, two from each Congressional District and four from the State at large, to represent the at Chicago on the 24th of June, A. D. 1880, and to transact such other business as may be deemed necessary.

Somebody has thrown a wet blanket on the seat stealing business in Congress.

The Democratic party is subsisting on uncertainty. This is less encouraging than eating hucks.

The unsetting of Washburn, of Minnesota, depends upon what orders Mr. Tilden gives Mr. Springer.

It is not yet known what disposition Mr.
Tilden will make by the Democratic corpse after the November election.

Chief Justice Ryan will beat the doctors and get on the bench again. Numerous obituaries are ready for him.

In order to avoid any responsibility in the defeat which will overtake the party this fall, the Democrats intend to play sick.

Ex-Governor Fairchild, of this State, was received by the King of Spain today, and presented his credentials as minister plenipotentiary.

It costs the government about sixty-five thousand dollars annually to distribute the seeds sent out by the Agricultural Bureau.
This is rather costly business for the government.

If the Democratic party had strength enough to shake off Mr. Tilden there might be some hope of surviving, but it has not, and the only thing it can do is to make a funeral of itself.

The Chicago Journal refers to ex-Governor Ludington, of Milwaukee, as a "well known" Democrat, who declined to be come the party candidate for Mayor. What does "Buff Old Harry" say to this?

The nominations made by the Republican caucus last night are first class, and every one of them should be elected. They are business men of practical experience, and would honor the Council and ably represent the city.

One would have to go a great way to find a more hopeless and demoralized set of men than the Democrats of Milwaukee.
They have not got strength enough to command respect, and are so demoralized that they can find head or tail to their organization.

The ice vendors in New York city have agreed to increase the price to one cent a pound, which will make the difference between the wholesale and retail prices, over three hundred per cent. The reason why this enormous advance has been made is on account of the additional expense of gathering, housing, and transporting. Most of the ice in the New York market has been shipped from Maine.

Dr. Garcelon, who has the frankness to say that he helped to rob the State of Maine, and to cheat the people out of their election, was a surgeon in the army during the war, and his treatment of the wounded after the battle of Antietam, was so brutally inhuman, that Dr. Hammond Sargant-General of the United States, was called upon to interfere. He would cut and slash at the wounded soldiers in a most indiscriminate manner, and when Dr.
Hammond met him to remonstrate with him, he found him engaged in his deadly work with his linen duster pockets filled with the wounded soldiers' bones! He was ordered to quit the field, and did so.

The government appears to have a good deal of trouble with its silver, and each month the trouble increases. It can not get its silver dollars out of the treasury vaults, and already more than thirty millions of them are locked up and doing the people no good. The main difficulty is with the fractional silver.
These coins have a tendency to accumulate at the various money centres, and instead of going back through the business channels to the people, they find their way directly into the treasury. One plan to remedy this evil, is to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury by law, to return the fractional silver to the country banks through the mails in registered envelopes in sums of ten dollars and upwards, the packages not to exceed four pounds in weight. Something should be done to utilize the vast volume of silver coins now in the country.

KEARNEY.

Special to the Gazette.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—Kearney has been beaten in the contest which he invited. His candidate, Friend, was defeated for State Senator by James Byrnes, Republican, by over 3,000 majority. The Kearneyites are furious, and are making allegations of fraud. They claim their candidate was sold out by the Democrats.
LATER.

The city is intensely excited over the sweeping victory for the citizens protection party, who have a majority of 7,000. Kearney raved like a madman, when he realized that he was absolutely beaten. He worked himself into such a pitch of excitement that he fell in a fit, foaming at the mouth. He was carried to his residence.
His prostration intensified the excitement.

go to the penitentiary. Kalloch says the citizens ballots were not legal, and shall not be counted.

THE DEMOCRACY.

Fighting for the Hotels at Syracuse

SYRACUSE, March 30.—The fight between John Kelly and Tilden has for the past two days been transferred to Syracuse. Both the Tammany leader and the friends of the Sage of Gramercy Park have engaged in a fierce struggle for the hotels and opera-houses of this city. The Tilden State Committee called the State Convention to meet in Syracuse April 20. The Tilden Tildenites secured Wieting's Opera house and the Globe and Vanderbilt hotels, the proprietors of which have stipulated that they shall be under full control of the Tilden State Committee. It will be useless, therefore, for any Kelly men to apply for lodgings. The Kelly men, however, were not to be outdone, and to-day they secured the new Grand Opera house, and the Rumington, Congress and Temperance hotels. It is expected that the Kelly State Convention will now be called to meet in this city on the same day that the Tilden State Convention meets. The feeling among the Democrats in this section is friendly to Kelly, and great satisfaction is expressed at the failure of the Tilden State Committee to shut the doors of one Syracuse hotel against Kelly and his friends.

THE KELLOGG CASE.

Attitude of Ben Hill On the Louisiana Senatorship.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Senator Hill, of Georgia, was asked to-day whether he intended to call up the Kellogg-Spofford case soon. "Next week," he promptly answered. "I should have called it up this week except that the testimony was not printed and laid upon the desks of Senators until yesterday. I shall give them a week to examine the testimony, and then I shall ask to have the subject taken up and pressed to a conclusion." Senator Hill is evidently very much in earnest, and will do his best to secure the he can pull them through, either at the polls or by the free use of money. All in all, the Democrats are in an unpleasant state of mind.

Senator Hill is evidently very much in earnest, and will do his best to secure the early ousting of Kellogg. But he does not seem to know the extent of feeling in his own party against the proposed action.

Senator Bayard is considered certain to vote against the doctrine that a Senator can be turned out by a majority vote, and Judge Thurman is expected to take the position. Butler, of South Carolina, will hardly support a doctrine which the Republicans might turn against him if they should recover control of the Senate. Indeed, it is believed that half a dozen Democrats at least will vote against him, and some people expect to see the number grow as high as ten. Hill said that he understood a number of Senators on the Democratic side had wanted the matter postponed until after election, which seemed to him only a confession of cowardice. Some Democrats had been troubled by question of res adjudicata, but he thought the treatment of that point in the majority report had cleared it up.

CIPHERING.

Secretary Sherman and His Visit to Ohio.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—To-day several of Sherman's friends have tried to him from going to Ohio, as they fear the object of the visit might be misconstrued, but he thought best, on the whole, to make the trip. In this he defers to the wishes of many of his friends in Ohio, who have written him repeatedly on the subject.
They thought it best for him to visit the State, and hence he goes. While there he will consult with his friends as to the outlook in Ohio, and in the States generally. It is thought here by some of Sherman's friends that Garfield is not as active in Sherman's support as he should be. His influence, even in his own district, is not exercised for Sherman to a perceptible extent—at least, this is intimated by the gossips. It is said, however, that Garfield's apparent lukewarmness is not from hostility to Sherman, or anything like it, but because he believes Grant is the coming man, and that it is not worth while wasting breath to prevent the inevitable. Save the short letter he wrote in Sherman's behalf some two months ago, Garfield has not been active in the Senator's behalf.

An intimate friend of Blaine says that the Senator is not responsible for the Blaine movement; that he has nothing to do with it, has not encouraged or discouraged it, and that the movement is the spontaneous offering of his friends. It is intimated, with many a sly wink, however, by the knowing ones that the Blaine movement in Ohio is a Grant movement in disguise, and at the proper moment the disguise will be thrown off.
It is also said by some that many of Sherman's friends in Ohio are really Grant men, and when the time is ripe will come out in their true colors.

MURDER.

Fatal Quarrel about a Lady in a New York Ball Room.

CINCINNATI, O March 30.—Chas. Theis, Jr., and Joseph Ritter, two well known young men of Newport, Ky., attended a ball together at Eclipse Hall last night, and during the night Theis was ordered away from the side of a young lady who had been brought to the ball by Henry Brown. Some trouble arose then, but it was settled without violence. About 5 o'clock, however, while going home, Brown and Ritter met Theis at the corner of Jefferson and Monmouth streets, and the quarrel was renewed.
Brown knocking Theis down. At this point Ritter ran up a drawn revolver, and leveling it at the head of Theis, fired twice, both balls taking effect. Theis died in an hour. Ritter surrendered to the officers. Both are young men of good character, but both were under the influence of liquor. The testimony at the inquest is to the effect that, while Ritter and Peter Betz were engaged in an altercation on their way home, Theis came in and struck at Meyer. When Brown knocked Theis down. Several witnesses testified that while he was down Theis drew a pistol and pointed it at Ritter.
Ritter then said: "You will pull a pistol, Meyer, and then fired twice. Ritter said to the jailor: "I had to shoot him or he would have shot me."

SHOT HIS FATHER.

DEADWOOD, March 30.—Andrew Wallace, a prominent and wealthy mine speculator, was shot four times, and probably fatally, by his son Sank, this morning, at his residence in Pennington. The son has been confined to his bed for some time with an affection of the kidneys, and for the past week has been violently insane.
This morning the father was seated at a desk in the drawing room with his back to the bedroom door, when Sank quietly slipped out of bed, secured two pistols, and with one in each hand stealthily approached to within a few feet of his father, when he fired four shots in rapid succession, all taking effect. Help rushed in and secured the maniac ere he could empty the pistols. Father and son are now in the hospital. Wallace was formerly of Indianapolis, and is connected with an influential mining company of that city, which is now in litigation with the Homestead company over water rights.

A BURGLAR'S FATE.

BOSTON, March 30.—The burglars' fraternity throughout the country will be interested in knowing that Langdon W.
Moore, the peer of any of them in ability and success, was to-day sentenced to sixteen years' imprisonment in the Massachusetts State prison. Moore, who is now 51 years old, feels pretty badly over his fate, and realizes the fact that, in all probability it is a life sentence on which he is entering. In the prison to which he has gone are several bank robbers whom he gave away.

EDISON'S MOTOGRAPH.

NEW YORK, March 30.—The executive committee of the Western Union Telegraph company has authorized the purchase of Edison's electric motograph. The price is $100,000. It is said that the motograph, together with the Field electric motor now in use by the Western Union company will do away with the necessity of maintaining batteries, which is a large item in the way of expense to the company, besides taking up a great deal of room.

MILWAUKEE, March 30.—The Executive Committee of the Chamber of Commerce to-day reported in favor of co-operating with other commercial organizations in an effort against the dictation of the trunk lines respecting the routes to be assigned articles for export. They strongly condemned the dictation of the railway companies as being detrimental to the interests of the Western business man.

ANOTHER VICTIM.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—George Mitchell, a painter, was arrested last night at his place of business, on a charge of insanity proffered by his employer. He had become insane over the fifteen puzzle, and covered the floor and wall with figures in his attempt to solve it.

NEW YORK, March 30.—The President

Mrs. Evarts dined this evening at the residence of Mrs. John Jacob Astor. Later in the evening a brilliant reception took place.

The Committee on Organization appeared at this time and gave the following report: The Committee appointed by the Chair for the purpose of organizing a tobacco growers' association, to be called and known as the Southern Wisconsin Tobacco Growers' Association, to be officers as follows: President, A. J. Squires, Secretary, Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer. We also recommend the above officers to be on this day elected, who shall be authorized to prepare a constitution and by laws for governing the same, and present them to a meeting of said association for their approval; said meeting to be called as soon as convenient.

A motion was made and carried that the report of the committee be accepted and adopted. Officers were then elected by viva voce vote, as follows:

Vice President—R. T. Powell, Rock County.

Vice President—T. J. Atwood, Dane County.
Vice President—Ezra Phillips, Green County.
Vice President—Jas D. Whitte, Jefferson County.
Secretary—E. R. Squires, Porter.
Corresponding Secretary—Geo. Rumlil, Fulton.

Mr. Miles spoke in regard to the best plan by which to get rid of the tobacco fly or miller. Thought that by general use of Jimson seed and cobalt water but a short time could elapse before they would be effectually destroyed. Dr. Lord also spoke on the same subject.

On motion of Mr. Powell, the meeting adjourned until Wednesday next, March 31st, at one o'clock p.m.
All who were in attendance were active in the work of organization, and evince an interest in the matter that is commendable, and of course the organization of such a society will be beneficial, both to grower and buyer, and on Wednesday next we expect to see even a larger attendance than at the first meeting. Bryant, of Madison, President of the State Agricultural Society will address the members of the Southern Wisconsin Tobacco Growers' Association, at their adjourned meeting on Wednesday afternoon, so turn out, all ye farmers, and lend your presence and aid in the forming of this society, and the advancement of the tobacco interests of Wisconsin.

THE TOBACCO GROWERS.
Their Organization and Its Object.
Southwestern Wisconsin Tobacco Growers' Association a Permanent Institution.

Pursuant to call, the tobacco growers met in Union hall, Edgerton, on Wednesday, March 24th, at 2 o'clock p.m., for the purpose of organizing a Tobacco Growers' Association. There was a large attendance at the meeting, the estimate of the number present being placed at two hundred or over. The interest of the meeting ran high, and all seemed determined to perfect the organization of said society and promote the welfare of the tobacco growing district of Wisconsin.

The meeting was called to order by Hon. S. L. Lord, who made a few remarks introductory and explanatory, as to the object of the meeting. On motion, Dr. Lord was then chosen as Chairman of the meeting, and George Rumlil was chosen Secretary.

Mr. R. T. Powell of Fulton, then arose and addressed the meeting in regard to the formation of said society, and expressed himself as greatly in favor of the organization of an association for the advancement of the tobacco interest, and claimed that with a proper knowledge of the cultivation and handling of "the weed," Wisconsin tobacco could be brought up to a high standard and grade as any in the market.

The Chairman then gave a statement of the benefits to be derived from the united work of the tobacco growers in an association of this character, and reading in reference to committees and officers from the Constitution and By-Laws of the State Horticultural Society, and advocating the appointment of such committees.

Mr. W. H. Trip, of the Town of Rock, moved that a committee of five be appointed, as a Committee on Organization.

George Coon arose and asked the question, "What benefit is to be derived from the organization of the society?" He was in favor of any measure that would promote the interests of Wisconsin tobacco. His remarks were sound, to the point, and well received.

The motion of Mr. Trip was put to the house and carried, and the Chair appointed the following named gentlemen as such committee: Wm. Trip, R. T. Powell, Ed. Squires, W. S. Follansbee and George Coon. The committee retired to lay their plan of organization, and the discussions were again resumed.

Captain Isaac Miles was called upon, and gave his opinion of the growing of tobacco, and said that he was in favor of growing and being united. He gave his opinions and made some remarks in regard to the care to be exercised in the handling of tobacco, giving a description of a marker with which to lay off tobacco grounds, after the soil is pulverized and in condition, and also in regard to the purchase of pulverizers—very numerous and interesting.

Wm. P. Bentley took the floor and addressed the meeting briefly as follows: "Your object is a good one, and I hope it will be successfully carried through. If we can, by meeting in an association of this kind, learn to handle the article in a proper manner, learn to exercise the proper care in the cultivation of 'the weed,' we will be successful. The burning quality of Wisconsin tobacco is excellent, and no fault can be found with it. The question is, can we learn to so handle properly? If so, we will go to the front."

Wm. W. Child also spoke in much the same strain, favoring the organization of the association, and saying that he was having arranged the Chairman again to be president of the meeting, and stated on good authority that there would be substantial aid given should they choose to organize themselves.

T. J. Atwood addressed the assemblage in favor of organization, and said he believed that great benefit could be derived therefrom. Compared the Eastern and Western methods of work, and also comparing Wisconsin with Connecticut and other eastern tobacco. He feared too many acres would be grown this year and the tobacco would be lacking in quality. The Committee on Organization appeared at this time and gave the following report: The Committee appointed by the Chair for the purpose of organizing a tobacco growers' association, to be called and known as the Southern Wisconsin Tobacco Growers' Association, to be officers as follows: President, A. J. Squires, Secretary, Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer. We also recommend the above officers to be on this day elected, who shall be authorized to prepare a constitution and by laws for governing the same, and present them to a meeting of said association for their approval; said meeting to be called as soon as convenient.

A motion was made and carried that the report of the committee be accepted and adopted. Officers were then elected by viva voce vote, as follows:

Vice President—R. T. Powell, Rock County.

Vice President—T. J. Atwood, Dane County.
Vice President—Ezra Phillips, Green County.
Vice President—Jas D. Whitte, Jefferson County.
Secretary—E. R. Squires, Porter.
Corresponding Secretary—Geo. Rumlil, Fulton.

Treasurer—Henry Marsden, Dane County.

—Mr. Notbohm passed a very poor night, and his condition to-day is not bettered much.
—Mr. J. E. Powers was able to get down town to-day, but looks poorly, and is still quite weak.
—George Burpee seemed to fail some last night, and his condition to-day is such as to give little hope of his recovery.

Rev. M. Wells, for years pastor of the church at Fulton, is now very sick at his home in Palmyra. Dr. Sutherland was to-day summoned there for a consultation.

—Mr. and Mrs. Carrington were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. Norris, while in this city. Mr. E. Beeson, of Fond du Lac, Mrs. Carrington's father, was also in the city last evening, and returned to his home to-day.

—Herbert's Grand Constellation has engaged the Opera house for a week commencing the evening of the 19th. It is not often that a theatrical troupe puts in a full week in Janesville, and they must have something pretty good to offer the public.

—Maggie Maher, a little nine-year-old girl, while at play with other children at the railroad turntable in Beloit last Sunday, got her foot caught between the table and the abutment of the track, and received such injuries that she died yesterday morning.

—David Cobb, one of Janesville's oldest residents, died this forenoon about eleven o'clock. He was born in Louisville, New York, and moved into this county thirty-seven years ago, and has resided here ever since. He had reached the age of seventy-seven years, and leaves a wife and one son, besides a large circle of friends who will mourn his death, and who sympathize deeply with those more immediately bereaved.

—Richardson Bros. are to move their store onto River street, next to Eldred's grocery store, and will keep up their business there for sixty days or so, by which time they hope to be in their new store. They will keep a portion of their stock in the basement of the postoffice building. When the new block is ready for occupancy the old building will probably be moved over near Hodge & Buchholz shops and given over to the use of the Empire Cross Spring Company, whose business is so increasing as to demand more room for manufacturing, in order to keep up with the demand for springs.

—In another column M. C. Smith & Son make their spring announcement, No. 1. It is good reading matter and well illustrated, but the only really good way to find out the whole truth is to go to the store, get inside, and look at the stock. That don't show on the picture, but it shows in the store, and shows up big too, for it's immense. A man small or big, a boy ugly or goodnatured, who can't find just what he wants there would make money setting himself up in the side-show business, with himself as the "only greatest living curiosity." Smith & Son are doing a thriving business, and we are glad of it. It's a proof that reasonable prices, first-class goods, and a big variety are appreciated by the public.

DEATH OF MISS GOODELL.

Our citizens will learn with pain the untimely death of Miss Lavinia Goodell, which took place at Milwaukee, at two o'clock this morning. For two or three years past Miss Goodell had been in poor health, but on her return from the East several months ago, she seemed to have almost entirely recovered, and resumed the practice of the law. Last year she went to Madison to engage in the practice, but recently to make her home in Milwaukee.

Six weeks ago she was, taken down with a severe illness, which resulted in her death. Mrs. Frost, of Michigan, a sister of the deceased, is the only surviving member of the family.

Miss Goodell was a woman of marked characteristics, of strong will power, and a close student. She studied law in Mr. A. A. Jackson's office several years ago, was admitted to the bar of the Circuit Court, and after a severe struggle and much delay, was finally admitted to the Supreme Court of this State. She gained almost a national reputation by the manner in which she mastered her case before the Supreme Court, and was widely known by her many and able articles on woman's rights which appeared in the leading journals of the East.

The funeral will take place at the First Congregational church to-morrow at two o'clock.

MUSIC OF MERIT.

The Carrington Concert Last Evening a Grand Success.

At the Opera house last evening was gathered a large audience, made up of our most enthusiastic and appreciative music lovers, to greet Miss Abbie Carrington and the Mendelssohn Quartet Club. Expectation ran high, but none were disappointed. The words of praise which reached from other cities and heralded the coming of these artists, were none too loud or too many, and it was the general verdict of the auditors that the concert was one of the best which has ever been given in this city.

Of Miss Carrington too much cannot be said. She is above criticism. She so delights the listener that even the frozen heart of a critic thaws out, and runs into the emotional, before he has time to hunt around for any chance to find fault. She was cordially received last night, and though she had but two numbers on the programme, she was pressed into giving two more by the enthusiastic encores, and still the audience were not satisfied, and went away hungry for more. Her voice is a wonder. The notes come as though they couldn't help it, the music bubbles forth in sweet warbles, and one is charmed without stopping to think how or by what. It is so easy, so faultless, so thrilling. When it climbs up, up, up, till you almost lose sight of it, there is no fear lest of any false step or stumble. One feels that the sweet singer couldn't fall if she tried. The faultless execution, the evidence of careful training and thorough culture, do not show themselves in any mechanical stiffness, but are made so natural a part of her voice that it seems she must have always sung as she does now, and that she could continue to sing thus forever. Her face is full of expression, and when added to this are the notes of so flexible and sympathetic a voice as is hers, it seems to matter little whether she sings Italian or English. One catches the spirit and meaning of the song even though the words are strangers. It must be conceded that critics have rightly ranked her as occupying a place equal to the best concert singers in the world.

The Mendelssohn Quartet Club furnish hardly less a treat in their line of work. In correct time, and faithful execution they cannot be excelled. Their solos were also exceedingly enjoyable. William Schade's flute solo was one of the best ever heard in this city. Thomas Ryan, gave a clarinet solo, which earned a hearty encore. Edward Heimendahl, a young violinist of rare ability, did most excellently, and was forced to respond to the encore, so enthusiastic was it. Fred Giese gave a solo on the violinello such as was never heard in this city before. It was one of the most enjoyable features of the entertainment, and won for him the long continued applause of the hearers, and a hearty encore.

The Club has been organized thirty years, and Mr. Ryan is the only one of the original founders now in the organization. The other members are young men, but they are evidently capable of sustaining the well-earned reputation of the Club and adding fresh laurels to its name.

Miss Carrington and the Club appear in Monroe to-night. Every seat has been sold, at a dollar each, which is an indication of the enthusiasm which is awakened there. They will then visit Oakshoe, Fond du Lac, Appleton and Milwaukee, and in each of these cities they will surely be given an enthusiastic reception.

MILWAUKEE GRAIN REPORT.

Special Correspondence Janesville Gazette.

MILWAUKEE, March 29—p.m.

A weak and uncertain feeling has characterized the market during the past week. On Monday influenced by free selling, partly on account of exhausted margins, a rapid decline took place. April selling down to $1.10 1/2, and May at $1.14 1/2. These prices brought large buying orders, and a reaction resulted, carrying prices rapidly up, until Wednesday, when $1.13 1/2 was reached for April, and May was taken freely at $1.17 1/2; since when a gradual decline has ensued, closing on Saturday about 1 1/2 on the spot and 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 cents lower on the futures than on the 26th inst. There has been a noticeable improvement in the demand at the decline, both for local milling and for shipment, several large foreign orders having been received and filled. Our stock for the first time in a number of weeks showing a decrease of about 50,000 bushels. At seaboard points a marked increase in the volume of business has resulted from the decline, the exports for the week footing up 2,700,000 bushels. It is now generally conceded that prices have reached a legitimate shipping basis, and many large operators favoring the bear side above $1.20 are now to be found in the ranks of the bullvers in high prices. The situation abroad certainly warrants the belief that all our surplus wheat will be wanted before another harvest will be secured, however bountiful that harvest may prove to be. The future of prices can only be determined, however, by the action of the climate, who control nearly, if not all, the spring wheat now in sight.

Apprehensions of danger from drought to the growing crop in Kansas and some portions of California have given place to a better feeling since these sections have been visited by copious rains.

Receipts here during the past week about no material change, averaging about 32,000 daily, as against 22,000 the previous week, 37,000 the same week last year, and about 50,000 bushels for the same week in 1878. The total receipts at spring wheat points for the week were 320,000 bushels, as against 424,000 bushels the same week last year, and 470,000 bushels in 1878. The amount of wheat in sight in this country, as reported on the 23rd inst., was 25,861,000 bushels, showing a decrease since the previous report of 1,183,000 bushels, still leaving the visible supply larger by 4,879,000 bushels than at the corresponding date in 1879. The amount on passage for the United Kingdom and Continent, reported up to the 25th inst., was 2,940,000 bushels. The grand total in sight in this country and in transit for foreign ports aggregates 45,940,000 bushels, as against 46,990,000 at the last report.

Foreign markets ruled weaker on cargoes to arrive, while spot wheat has remained firm and unchanged. A further advance in ocean freights about offsets the decline in wheat here, so that the cost of our No. 2 laid down in Liverpool is still about $1.54. Cargoes to arrive in Liverpool are quoted at $1.53 to $1.54 per bushel.
